Of Interest to

STOCKHOLDERS.

Free Transportation to Attend the Annual Meeting at Chicago.

Public notice is hereby given that the regular annual meeting of the stockholders of the Illinois Central Railroad Company will be held at its offices in Chicago, Illinois, on Wednesday, October 21, 1903, at twelve o'clock noon.

To permit personal attendance at said meeting there will be issued to each holder of one or more shares of the capital stock of the Illinois Central Railroad Company as registered on the books of the company at the close of business on Tuesday, September 29, 1903, who is of full age, a ticket enabling him, or her, to travel free over the company's lines from the station on the Illinois Central railroad nearest to his or her registered address to Chicago and return, such ticket to be good for the journey to Chicago only during the four days immediately preceding, and the day of the meeting, and for the return journey from Chicago only on the day of the meeting, and the four days immediately following, when properly countersigned and stamped during business hours—that is to say, between 9 o'clock a. m. and 2 o'clock p. m.—in the office of the Assistant Secretary, Mr. W. G. Bruen, in Chicago. Such ticket may be obtained by any holder of stock registered as above, on application, in writing to the President of the company in Chicago. Each application must state the full name and address of the stockholder exactly as given in his or her certificate of stock, together with the number and date of such certificate. No more than one person will be carried free in respect to any one holding of stock as registered on the books of the company.
A. G. HACKSTAFF, Secretary.

RESULTS TELL.

There Can be no Doubt About the Results in Hopkinsville.

Results tell the tale. All doubt is removed. The testimony of a Hopkinsville citizen.

Can be easily investigated. What better proof can be had? Mrs. W. L. Johnson, of 615 Jesup avenue, says: "My husband suffered for several years with kidney complaint which made its presence known by a most severe aching in his back and which often became so bad especially in the morning when rising or on occasions when he was obliged to do considerable stooping or lifting, that he could scarcely move about. It occurred to him while reading an advertisement in our local papers about Doan's Kidney pills that they might at least give him some relief, and acting on the thought he went to Thomas & Trahern's drug store and got a box. The treatment proved the merits of the remedy. The aches and pains were relieved and the other symptoms disappeared. I have the best of reasons to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills and am confident that in every case they will do all that is represented for them."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

A Worm Killer.

J. A. J. Montgomery, Puxico, Wayne Co., Mo., writes: "I have little twin girls, who have been bothered with worms all their lives. I tried everything to relieve them which failed until I used White's Cream Vermifuge; the first two doses brought four worms from one of them, the next two doses, twelve, one of them measuring twelve inches; the other child was only relieved of four worms. It is a most excellent medicine." White's Cream Vermifuge is good for children. It not only destroys worms, it helps the child to perfect growth, wards off sickness. 25c at R. C. Hardwick's.

Speculative.

The desire to "get rich quick" leads many otherwise conservative men and women into all kinds of speculative ventures, many of which turn out disastrously. There is absolutely no speculation or rise attending the use of Dr. Caldwell's (Laxative) Syrup Pepsin, which is guaranteed to give satisfaction in all cases of constipation, indigestion, dyspepsia and kindred troubles. Ask your druggist. If he does not keep it, send his name to Pepsin Syrup Co., Monticello, Ill., and they will send you a sample bottle free.

EGGS FOR NEW YORK CITY.

Brought from Places as Remote as China and Labrador.

Some idea of the great consumption of eggs by New Yorkers may be had from the fact that hundreds of millions of eggs are shipped into that city annually from all parts of the country. Most of the eggs used there, according to the New York Herald, come from the western states. A large quantity, however, come from Canada and the British provinces, while no inconsiderable number find their way to the New York market from such places as Hungary, Labrador and China.

Various methods are employed in shipping eggs to this market. They may be packed in lime or sawdust or carefully assorted in little pasteboard compartments, but in whatever shape they arrive the eggs are invariably submitted to the rigid scrutiny of "the candle" before being placed in the hands of the retailer.

The candling process consists in holding each egg before a lighted candle. As this work is performed in a darkened room, the spots or discolorations are easily detected, and these "spotted," or tainted, eggs are placed to one side.

Bad eggs may be divided into three classes—rotten, spotted and cracked. These are designated by the egg merchants as "rots," "spots" and "cracks," are, of course, disposed of at reduced rates.

The cracked eggs, being otherwise perfectly good, are usually bought for restaurants and bakeries, although these, too, purchase the "spots," which are considered good enough for omelets or ordinary pasty. Some of the cheap restaurants, though, rarely use any other than spotted eggs.

Eggs that are particularly bad are sold to peddlers who pay from three to five cents a dozen for them. These find their way into the tenement districts, where they are sold by the quart. It is hard to conceive of a large number of tainted eggs broken into large cans and then peddled out in liquid form, but such is the fact.

Eggs have other uses, too. They are sometimes used for cleaning jewelry and for this purpose "bad" eggs are as good as any other kind.

It might be mentioned that some eggs are not even eggs, to say nothing of their quality, an enterprising Jerseyman having, it would seem, once invented a process by which eggs, or what appeared to be eggs, could be made from certain kinds of paste and cornmeal. These were even dangerous to use, as they would splinter and fly about in all directions when dropped upon a hot frying pan. It is not known whether such eggs are now in the market, but on general principles it is always well to exercise a little caution in buying this particular food product.

As to the eggs sent here from China, these are, as a rule, duck eggs, and are much prized by the most select Celestials. Even Labrador contributes its quota of "hen fruit" to the New York market, but these eggs are mostly laid by the wild sea fowl along the coast and are not much sought after, as their flavor is considered poor.

THE VERDICT OF GUILTY.

Produces Curiously Different Effects on Different Defendants.

"Verdicts of guilty and the sentences subsequently imposed produce different effects on different defendants," remarked an official who for a number of years has been connected with one of the local criminal courts, to a reporter for the Washington Star. "Some prisoners are deeply affected, some fail to evince the slightest concern, and some seem to be really amused on hearing the announcement of their conviction."

"I recall an instance of a colored man convicted of murder, jocularly thanking the judge who had solemnly pronounced the death sentence upon him, and then laughingly inquiring of his honor: 'Is that all?' This occurred only a few years ago."

"Recently, however, the opposite happened. A colored woman was tried in criminal court No. 1 on a charge of larceny. Immediately upon hearing the foreman of the jury pronounce the word 'Guilty' she declared hysterically: 'Indeed, I didn't take the money,' and then fell to the floor in a dead faint. Several days later, when the presiding justice sentenced the woman to imprisonment in the penitentiary for three years, she again fainted. The curious feature of this case is that the prisoner is an old-timer, and had posed in court as defendant in several cases previously."

A Handful of Sketches

That I can show you will easily convince the most skeptical that I can do the planning if you will tell me the amount you want to spend and send sketches with measure of inside of rooms.

You can plan, and plan well perhaps, but you want some one to put it on paper and prepare your specifications. Perhaps I can add to your idea and together make you a better building for less money. It costs nothing to try.
